

Sierra Central Credit Union

Laura Clark, Branch Vice President cuts the ribbon for the brand new building at the corner of Placerville Drive and Green Valley Road. Originally formed to serve military personnel, Beale Credit Union opened in 1955 when fifteen members of the Air Force each invested one hundred dollars to form the credit union that would serve military and civilian personnel. Converting to a Community Charter in 1994, the change expanded membership beyond restrictive employee group limitations. By the end of 2014, Sierra Central's membership base was at 61,000 and member deposits had grown to $645 million.
