Business Showcase & Awards Luncheon

The Chamber is proud to announce this year's recipients of our annual Business Awards presented at the State of the County luncheon.

The well-deserving Businesses were: Pampering Pickle - Start-up of the Year

Bright Hope Design - Home-Based Business of the Year

Straight Line Construction - Small Business of the Year

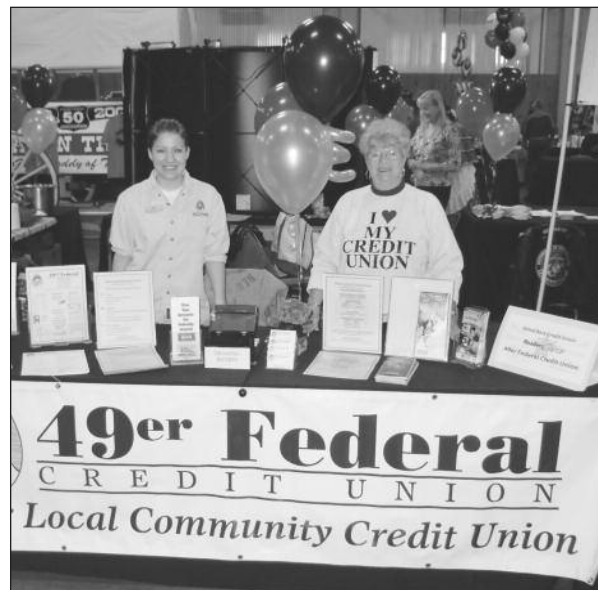

El Dorado Disposal - Community Service of the Year

The audience also heard from Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, John Knight. Supervisor Knight's message was chock full of facts and figures that he cautiously expressed as optimistic.

Recognized for their support of the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce were Mark Luster, Sierra Pacific Industries; Richard Esposito, Mountain Democrat; Debi Harlow, Waste Connections; and Mark Forni, PG&E. (Chamber Champions not able to attend: Wells Fargo Bank, Parker Development and Marshall Medical)

One of over 70 businesses promoting themselves at the Business Showcase, 49er Federal Credit Union has been serving El Dorado County for 48 years.

"The local economic signals remain mixed but the County operational budget appears to be in better shape relative to the past few years.

A structural shortfall remains in our 5-year budget projection, but the Board is supporting the CAO's investment strategy to close this gap in the long run. The Board is taking a comprehensive fresh look at our land use policies to remove barriers to economic growth."

Thank you to the following;

Jack Russell Brewing Co., Old Hangtown Beerworks, Capitol Sierra Catering, Diane Wilkinson Catering, Fountain Grill & Catering, MORE, Old Town Grill, Pheasant Wood Catering, Spanky's @ the Capitol Café & Grill, Auriga Wine Cellars, Crystal Basin Cellars, diVittorio Winery, Mount Aukum

Winery and Skinner Vineyards.

This year's guest speaker for the I Love Film Mixer, actor/stuntman Gary Davis, spoke to a standing room only audience and was pleasantly surprised when he was recognized as the first inductee in the Hall of Fame from the California Film Foundation. Mr. Davis' most recent credit is as stunt director for the academy award-winning film "The Artist."
